NEW BUSINESS

a. Pinellas County EMS Providers Cost Containment Plan – Capt. Jim Millican and Lt. Scott Sanford presented to the Board the Pinellas County Emergency Medical Service proposed cost containment and sustainability model. The goals set for the model are: To maintain the level of service; To equalized funding among providers; To contain costs; and To create a sustainable system. No Public comments; and questions from the Board were answered. The sample resolution supporting the model, will be reviewed by Town Attorney and put on the Oct. 18 Board agenda. Mayor Simons said Redington Beach is not involved in this project, since Town contracts with the Madeira Fire Dept and the Seminole EMS for services. However, in an effort to show support, Resolution will be reviewed. Mayor thanked Cpt. Millican and Lt. Sanford for their presentation.

REPORTS

OLD BUSINESS

a. Public Works update – Vice Mayor Steiermann referred to Sept. 30 memo regarding his discussion with Mark Davis on the future of the Public Works Director and Code Enforcement positions, when Mark retires. Mark Davis is in the Florida pension DROP program which mandates retirement after Five years in the DROP program. Mark Davis has been with Redington Beach over Thirty years, functioning as Public Works Director, Code Enforcement Officer, Emergency Manager, NPDES reporting, in addition to all other duties associated with these positions. In preparation the Town needs a plan. Vice Mayor Steiermann asked that the following issues be researched: The DROP program rules as applicable to Mark Davis; a poll conducted adjacent beach communities as to how they handle the different positions; and asked Monica Belina to conduct a workshop for the Board, on the NPDES reporting and updates. Town Clerk Patrus will compile this information and bring back for next Board meeting.

b. BIG-C Gulf Blvd. Beautification, Interlocal Agreement – Mayor Simons reported on the last review of the County interlocal agreement at the BIG C meeting. This is the latest draft of the agreement, disbursing Pennys for Pinellas revenue to the gulf beach communities based on previously approved plan. Of the $35 Million dollars will be spread over a seven year period, Redington Beach is allotted $1,558,300 for Gulf Blvd. beautification. Board discussion ensued. Commissioner Deighton said that his interpretation of Page 5, Section 4. Non-Appropriation. ...if funds are not appropriated by the County for a new fiscal period... the County shall not be obligated to pay sums pursuant to this agreement... and with the statement that this Agreement shall be terminated... without penalty to the County and all funds shall be retained by the County... . Attorney Daigneault said he would discuss the clause with Jim Yacavone, who initially drafted this agreement. Item will be brought back to the next, Oct. 18 Board agenda.

NEW BUSINESS moved to follow Public Participation
