

Website Accessibility Statement

updated October 26, 2018

The Town of Redington Beach is committed to ensuring that all visitors and residents, including visitors and residents with disabilities, are able to access and use all of our programs, services, and activities. We recognize that many visitors and residents are increasingly using our website to access information about what we offer, and to take advantage of the website to obtain services.

We also recognize that users of the website who have disabilities may use the website with the assistance of technology, including screen readers, as well as with captioning, transcripts, and the use of other auxiliary aids and services. As outlined below, we want to provide users of our website with information about what we offer, ways to inform us of any difficulties encountered, alternative ways we can offer the services, the time frame for doing so, who to contact, and information about our ADA Grievance Procedure, as discussed below.

Our website offers a wide range of information and services, and we recognize that for users with disabilities, some material on our site may pose challenges. We are interested in hearing from users with disabilities, we want to know about your experiences, and want to address the challenges you identify.

What to Do If You Encounter A Problem Using Our Website:

Web accessibility concerns, or any other accessibility concerns, should be brought to the attention of our ADA Coordinator. We will respond within one (1) business day.

We strive to ensure that our website will comply with WCAG 2.0 AA, but recognize that alternatives to using the website should be available in the event that a user with a disability encounters a problem using our website. Should you encounter such a problem, we urge you to contact our ADA Coordinator, who will provide an alternative way to quickly obtain the information you are seeking to obtain through the website. In addition, should you wish to file an ADA Grievance to alert us to any problems you may be experiencing, you may also file an ADA Grievance with us.

Ongoing Website Accessibility Efforts:

We are in the process of working with our Website Designer to assess our website's accessibility, and will be undertaking efforts to identify and address areas needing improvement. We will be establishing a schedule for enhancing accessible features of the website, and welcome your comments and insights. Please contact our ADA Coordinator at info@townofredingtonbeach.com or 727-391-3875.

Ongoing ADA Compliance Efforts:

The Town has designated an ADA Coordinator to address website accessibility concerns. We are in the process of completing a comprehensive review of our policies and practices for ADA compliance, and are working to enhance our services to the disabled community.

We are in the process of assessing our website's accessibility, with the assistance of experts in web accessibility and pursuant to the mandates of WCAG 2.0. We will be engaging in efforts to identify and correct issues, and developing a schedule for this effort.

The Town of Redington Beach is committed to ensuring that all visitors and residents with disabilities are able to access and use our programs, services, and activities. Our website offers a wide range of information and services. We are interested in hearing from users with disabilities, we want to know about your experiences, and want to address the challenges you identify. Please contact info@townofredingtonbeach.com to provide input or to request information be provided to you in an alternative format.

We welcome you to our website and we look forward to assisting you with any concerns.
